Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

Price 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

TAKING NO CHANCES.

The Old Gentleman Had Three Re-sons and Was Very.

The old gentleman had been rather gruff when the young man entered and his manner had not been particularly inviting while the young man was shifting from one foot to another and preparing to state his business. He simply said, "Well!" in an inquiring tone when the young man announced that he had come to see him on a matter of vast importance, but there was a great change when the young man said,
 "Your daughter!"

"My what?" interrupted the old gentleman with sudden animation.

"Your daughter," repeated the young man, and then he added, as a horrible suspicion crossed his mind, "She is yours, isn't she?"

"Of course she's mine," retorted the old gentleman. "She hasn't fallen off her bicycle and hurt herself, has she?"

"Oh, no, she—"

"And she hasn't run over any children or eloped with the coachman, or —or—"

"Nothing of that sort at all," answered the young man, becoming a trifle more courageous. "You see, she sent me here to ask you—"

"She sent you!"

"Yes, she—well, of course it was my suggestion first—but she said to ask you—"

The old gentleman seemed to be fully alive to the situation now. He stopped the young man by a gesture, and then he got up and shut and locked the door.

"What's the matter?" asked the young man with some agitation. "Was any one listening?"

"Not that I know of, but I am taking no chances."

"Ah, from past experiences you are inclined to suspect—"

"Well, yes, I am, to be real frank with you," returned the old gentleman.

"Now, go ahead."

"But I should think you could end it all by laying a trap," suggested the young man, ignoring the request of the elder to proceed.

"That's what I've done," was the reply. "Now, go on."

"Ah, servants are such—"

"Servants! Who said anything about servants?" roared the old gentleman.

"The last fellow who came in here to ask me for Mary weakened before he got half through and bolted, and I don't propose to take any chances this time.

Now, go ahead."

Of course, under the circumstances, there was little difficulty in reaching a conclusion that was satisfactory—temporarily, at least.—Chicago Post.

Reasons Why.

There are two reasons why people are now paying car fare all the way from Waikiki to the Palma Grocery and back. Reason

1. It is the only place on the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason

2. After paying car fare both ways patrons find they are money in pocket by dealing at this "live and let live" establishment. We also deliver goods between Diamond Head and Moanalua free.

HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.

Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
 Yours truly,
 J. B. DANIELS.
